McDearman Family Leave For Mississippi To Reside.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McDearman and family left first of the week for their home in Aberdeen, Miss. To say we deeply regret their departure, would be only a mild expression of the fact. They leave a vacancy in Gainesboro, which will be hard to fill. A more reputable family never lived in any town, and Gainesboro's loss is Aberdeen's gain.

Mr. McDearman was one of our most substantial and influential citizens, and has been engaged in the mercantile business here for the past 27 years. He first engaged in business here with Ed Dudley, in 1893, under the firm name of Dudley & McDearman, and remained in business until the spring of 1920, when he sold out his interest to Draper & Draper Co. His career as a merchant, has been successful all along, and his friends are numbered by his acquaintances.

Mrs. McDearman was very active in the various social circles, and was president of the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church at the time of her departure. She was presented with a beautiful cut glass bowl by the society, as a token of appreciation of the service she rendered during her term as president.

The Sentinel joins their host of friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

T. G. Haile, of McAlester, Okla., arrived here Thursday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Haile.

Entertain in Honor of Daughter's Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Quarles gave a birthday dinner Tuesday in honor of the seventh birthday of their little daughter, Ada Sue. Those present were: Ada McDearman, Joy Gailbreath, Ruth Francis Gist, Margaret Elizabeth Draper, Mary Benton Gore; Roy and Ralph McCawley, H. Grady Gore, Jr.; Harry Tardy, Edward Gailbreath, Booster Vernon, James Draper, and Hubert Anderson.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, after which games of various kinds were played, making the occasion one to be long remembered. The little hostess received a number of presents.

Fire Does Slight Damage.

The church and school house, located near Antioch in the 12th district, caught fire on the roof Thursday at noon from sparks, which fell into one of the valleys, where a lot of trash had accumulated. The damage was estimated between $15 and $20. The building was insured.

On the same day and in the same community, the store-house of J. W. Chaffin, and the dwelling of H. P. Platt, caught fire, but scarcely any damage was done either building.

REVENUES MAKING IT HOT FOR WILDCATERS.

Revenue officer H. J. Lynch, came in Sunday afternoon with three prisoners and two stills as a result of a trip to sixth district, better known as "Tick." Martin Scott and young son, and Pat Smith, were the unlucky chaps. Other officers participating in the raid were Stone of Carthage, and Jenkins and Gailbreath of Cookeville. Some one hidden in the bushes took a shot at officer Stone, but the bullet missed its mark about a foot and no damage was done. It was told that Stone turned a little red in the face and carried a look which was anything but pleasant the balance of the day.

The prisoners were taken to Cookeville where they later made bond.

Early Tuesday morning, following this raid, Lynch, Tyler and Jenkins destroyed a 50 gallon still on Indian creek in the second district, and poured out a lot of beer and singlings and destroyed 12 large boxes, which were used for storing malt. No arrests were made, but live coals were plentiful under the pot. The officers undoubtedly made their arrival a little late, or else the operators had a "hunch" and fled.

We are of the opinion that we will have more raids to report all along, as the campaign against the "mooshining" business has just started, we've been told.
